

RILEY'S BIOGRAPHICAL AND CHRONOLOGICAL

Born
Before
Christ
4004.

Died
Before
Christ
3074.

ADAM,

The Father of Mankind. God formed him out of the Dust of the Earth, endued him with Reason, animated him with an immortal Soul, and taught him the Knowledge of himself, and his Duty to the Creator. He forfeited the Possession of Paradise by eating the forbidden Fruit, which Transgression brought Death into the World.

EVENTS.—The World created. On the 6th Day of the Creation, Adam was formed and placed in Paradise, Gen. i.—On the 13th Day, Adam transgressed, G. i.—The Messiah foretold by God, G. iii. 15.—Sacrifice first offered by Cain, G. iv. 1.—Cain slew Abel, G. iv. 8.—Enos born, G. iv. 26.—Methuselah born, G. v.—Adam died, aged 930, G. v.

Born
B. C.
1044.

Died
B. C.
1994.

NOAH,

Son of Lamech, the famous Patriarch, who preached Repentance to Mankind, forewarned them of the Flood, from which he saved, by Building the Ark, the total Extinction of Mankind. Noah lived after the Flood 350 Years, and the whole Time of his Life was 950.

EVENTS.—Noah preached Penitence, and began to build the Ark 150 Years before the Deluge, Gen. vi. 13.—Methuselah died, aged 969, G. vi.—Universal Deluge began, and continued 1 Year and 10 Days, G. vii. 17.—God compacted with Noah, who planted the Vine, G. ix. 1.—Babylon and Nineveh built, G. xi.—Noah died, aged 950, G. ix. 28.

Born
B. C. 1996.

Died
B. C. 1821.

ABRAHAM,

Was the Founder of the Jewish Nations. To him God bestowed those promised Blessings which attended the Hebrews while they observed the Law of the Covenant. God predicted that, from his Issue, a future Messiah should be born, and that all Nations should be blessed in his Offspring.

EVENTS.—Abraham born, Gen. xi. 27.—went with his Father from Ur into Haran, G. xi. 31.—Abraham left Haran, and received Divine Promise, G. xii. 4.—The Servitude and Peregrination of the Israelites, G. xii. 6.—Abraham conquered several Kings of the Canaanites, G. xiv. 14.—God and Abraham converse together, G. xv. 1.—Circumcision instituted, G. xvii. 10.—Abraham assured by God of a future Messiah, G. xviii. 18 and 22.

Born
B. C. 1896.

Died
B. C. 1716.

ISAAC,

Was a famous Jewish Patriarch. He was the Son of Abraham, and distinguished for his filial Obedience. He was deprived of his Father's Blessing by the Stratagem of his Mother Rebekah, who caused it to be given to his Brother Jacob.

EVENTS.—Isaac, Son of Abraham, born, Gen. xxi. 1.—Hagar expelled from the House of Abraham, G. xxi. 9.—Isaac preferred by an Angel from being sacrificed by his Father, G. xxii. 1.—Isaac married Rebekah, G. xxiv. 6.—Esau and Jacob, Sons of Isaac, born, G. xxv. 24.—Abraham died, aged 175, G. xxv.—Isaac assured by God of a future Messiah, G. xxvi. 14.

Reigned
B. C.
1491.

Reigned
B. C.
1491.

PHARAOH,

Was that King of Egypt who is distinguished for his Oppression and Persecution of the Jews. After keeping the Jews many Years in a State of Bondage, he pursued Moses, their Deliverer, with a vast Army; and attempting to pass the Red Sea, in Pursuit of Moses and his People, the Scripture relates Pharaoh and his Host were lost in the Waters.

EVENTS.—Pharaoh refused Permission to the Jews to exercise their Religion, Exodus v. 1, &c.—denied Subjection to any God—increased the servile Labour of the Jews in their Captivity—continued obstinate, notwithstanding the Jews performed several Miracles in Egypt, Ex. vii. 10, &c.

Died
B. C.
1516.

Died
B. C.
1516.

BALAAM,

Was a Prophet and Diviner, whom Balak, King of the Moabites, sent for to curse the People of Israel; but, instead of cursing, he blessed them. The learned have disputed whether Balaam was a Prophet, or only a Magician. Many are inclined to believe the latter, although it is evident, from Scripture, that he had divine Communications.

EVENTS.—Balaam was sent for by Balak, King of Moab, to bless himself, and curse the Israelites, who were taking Possession of his Territories, Numbers xxi. 1, &c.—stopped in the way by an Angel, N. xxii. 22.—Balaam's Ass spoke, and reproved him—Balaam and the King confounded in their Schemes and Expectations, N. xxiv. 1, &c.—Balaam foretold the extensive Dominion of Israel, and the coming of Christ, N. xxiv. 17—19.

Born
B. C.
1534.

Died
B. C.
1424.

JOSHUA,

Was the renowned General of the Jews. He conducted them, after the Death of Moses, to the promised Land. He had the Care of the Tabernacle of the Congregation. His famous Exploit was the Destruction of Jericho. The Book, which bears the Name of Joshua, being attributed to his Pen, proves him to have been as great a Writer as he was a General.

EVENTS.—Joshua made the Leader of the People of God, Joshua i. 1.—took and destroyed Jericho, J. vi. 20.—Land of Canaan divided by Lot, J. xiv. 1.—Tabernacle set up, J. xviii. 1.—Joshua died, after he had ruled the Israelites 24 Years, J. xxiv. 29.—Israelites conquered their Enemies, Judges i. 22.

Born
B. C.
1026.

Died
B. C.
1116.

ELI,

High Priest of the Jews, was severely punished by the Lord for neglecting to chastise his Sons for their Wickedness. The Philistines put his Sons, Hophni and Phinehas, to the Sword. And Eli, bearing of their Fate, fell from his Seat, and broke his Neck, in the 90th Year of his Age.

EVENTS.—The Sons of Eli practice Impiety, without a Sense of Shame or Decency, 1 Sam. ii. 12.—Samuel, at 12 Years old, received a Call from God, 1 S. iii. 1.—Israelites conquered by the Philistines, who take the Ark of God, 1 S. iv. 1.—Eli broke his Neck, on the News of his impious Sons being slaughtered, 1 S. iv. 12.

Born
B. C. 1034.

Died
B. C. 975.

SOLOMON,

Son of David, and King of Israel, was famous for his Wisdom, Valour, and Munificence. He was, however, as much dishonoured for his Impiety and Ingratitude to God. He built the famous Temple and Palace at Jerusalem, Two Structures esteemed the most noble ever erected in the World. He is the Author of the Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and Canticles.

EVENTS.—Solomon born from Bathsheba, 2 Sam. xiv. 12.—constituted King by David, 1 Kings, i. 32.—received the Gift of Wisdom, 1 K. iii. 5.—finished the Temple, 1 K. vi. 1.—dedicated the Temple, 1 K. viii. 1.—built a superb Palace, 1 K. vii. 1.—Christ typified, Solomon's Song, ii. 1. 3, and 12.—visited by the Queen of Sheba, 1 K. x. 1.—died, 1 K. xi. 43.

Translated
to Heaven
A. M. 3112.

Translated to Heaven
B. C. 892.

ELIJAH,

The famous Prophet, whose Life was preserved by a Miracle, and whose Removal from this World was equally wonderful. Neither his Parentage, Education, or Call to Office, is mentioned in Scripture. He was preserved from a Famine he denounced against Abah, by being miraculously fed by Ravens. He was rapt to Heaven in a fiery Chariot.

EVENTS.—Elijah threatened a Drought to Israel 1 K. xvii. 1.—directed to leave his Retreat at Zophar, and promised him that he would shortly deliver Israel from its affliction, 1 K. xviii. 1.—Israelites abandon their Idolatry, 1 K. xviii. 1.—Elijah raised to Life the Widow's Son, 1 K. xviii. 8.—taken up to Heaven in a Whirlwind, 2 K. ii. 1.

Died
A. M. 3243.

Died
B. C. 761.

JONAH,

Was appointed by God to denounce Destruction against Nineveh. Embarking at Joppa to fly to Tarshish, he was, in a Tempest, thrown overboard, and swallowed by a Whale, where he remained 3 Days and Nights, when, at the Command of the Lord, he was cast safe on Shore. He went to Tyre, where he died.

EVENTS.—Jonah prophesied in Israel soon after Elifha, 2 Kings, xiv. 25.—sent to denounce vengeance against the Ninevites, Jonah, i. 1, &c.—feared he should be deemed a false Prophet, J. iv. 2.—thrown into the Sea, and swallowed by a Whale, from whence being delivered, after remaining three Days and Nights, he proceeded to Nineveh, according to the Command of the Lord, J. iii. 3, &c.

Began to reign
A. M. 3395.

Slain
B. C. 609.

JOSIAH,

King of Judah, the Destroyer of Idolatry, and the Restorer of the true Worship. He was an excellent Magistrate, and a valiant General. He was mortally wounded in a Battle he fought at Megiddo against Pharaoh Neco. Being carried to Jerusalem, he died there universally lamented by his People.

EVENTS.—Josiah preached before the Inhabitants at Jerusalem, 2 Kings, xxiii. 1, &c.—Josiah reigned with Piety and Justice, 2 K. xxi. 1.—Zedekiah reigned Eleven Years, when he was taken by Nebuchadnezzar, 2 K. xxv. 4.—The generality of Josiah's Subjects prove, by their Actions, the Diffimulation with which they heard the pious Doctrines of Josiah, Jer. iii. 6. 10.

Died
about
B. C. 555.

Died
about
B. C. 555.

DANIEL,

Was a young Man of the Tribe of Judah, and is greatly distinguished in Scripture for his Prophecies respecting the Messiah, and his Visions, in which he saw the Four great Monarchies of the World typified under their respective Emblems. He was carried Prisoner to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar.

EVENTS.—Daniel educated in the Learning of the Chaldees, Daniel i. 5 and 6.—excelled all the Astronomers, D. i. 20.—interpreted the Dream of Nebuchadnezzar, D. ii. 31 to 45.—made Ruler over Babylon, D. ii. 46 to 49.—interpreted the Words on the Wall, respecting Belshazzar, D. v. 25 to 28.—cast into a Den of Lions, from whence he escaped unhurt, D. vi. 11 to 23.—Daniel's Faith and Prophecies approved by Darius, D. vi. 25.—prophecies respecting Christ, D. vii. 13 and 14; ix. 24.

Died
about
A. M. 3580.

Died
about
B. C. 424.

NEHEMIAH,

The famous Chief of the Jews, who obtained leave of Artaxerxes, King of Persia, to re-build the Walls and Gates of Jerusalem. After regulating the Abuses of the Jews, he returned to Babylon, according to his Promise given to Artaxerxes. From thence he returned again to Jerusalem, where he died.

EVENTS.—Messiah foretold, Hag. ii. 6 to 9.—Jerusalem began to be re-built, by the Aid and Consent of Darius II. Ezra vi. 1.—Temple completed, Ezra vi. 13.—Nehemiah fasted and prayed for the Relief of the Jews—Nehemiah i. 5.—Nehemiah came and reformed the Laws and Morals of the People, N. ii. 9.—Zachariah prophesied respecting Christ, Z. vi. 12; ix. 10; xiii. 1 and 7; xi. 12 and 13.—Malachi prophesied concerning Christ, M. iii. 1.

Slain
A. M. 3843.

Slain
B. C. 161.

JUDAS MACCABEUS,

The celebrated General of the Jews, who was renowned for his signal Victories over his Enemies. Having thus performed many glorious Actions, he at last fell nobly in the Field of Battle, while he was engaging the Syrian Army, commanded by Bacchides, the General of Demetrius.

EVENTS.—Judas Maccabeus engaged the Idumeans, of whom he slew 20,000, 2 M. x. 1.—slew 20,000 of the Children of Ben, and next vanquished the Ammonites, and Timotheus, Governor of Judea, 1 M. v.—made Peace with Antiochus Eupator, 2 M. xi.

Died
A. M. 3860.

Died
B. C. 144.

JONATHAN,

Brother of Judas Maccabeus. He was a renowned General of the Jews, and put to Death by Diodorus Tryphon. He performed many gallant Exploits, and was distinguished for his Attachment to the Cause of the Jews, in whose Defence he lost his Life.

EVENTS.—Jonathan succeeded his Brother Judas, 1 M. ix.—made High Priest by Alexander, 1 M. x.—vanquished the Army of Appollonius, for which Act Alexander sent him a Royal Buckle of Gold, 1 M. x.—assisted Demetrius in the Destruction of Antioch, where 100,000 of the Inhabitants were slain, 1 M. xi.

GICAL TABLETS OF THE OLD TESTAMENT.

Born B.C. 1808. Died B.C. 1661.

JACOB,

Son of Isaac and Rebekah, and Father of the Twelve Patriarchs. He dreamed that he saw Angels descending from Heaven to Earth on a Ladder. Having served Laban as a Shepherd for 14 Years, he was rewarded with his Master's Two Daughters Leah and Rachel, whom he married at different Periods. God renewed with him the Promises given to Abraham. From this Patriarch, Joseph and his Brethren were born.

EVENTS.—Jacob went to Laban, and saw the Ladder in his Dream, Gen. xxviii. 10.—Jacob married Leah and Rachel, Daughters of Laban, G. xxix. 28.—Joseph born, G. xxx. 22.—Jacob left Laban privately, G. xxxi. 1.—Jacob reconciled to Esau, G. xxxiii. 1.—Rachel died, G. xxxv. 16.—The Messiah predicted under the Name of Shiloh, G. xlix. 10.

Born B.C. 1745. Died B.C. 1635.

JOSEPH,

Son of Jacob and Rachel, being hated by his Brethren, he was sold to some Medianitish Merchants, who carried him into Egypt, where he rose to the greatest Honours and Employments in the Court of Pharaoh. His refusing to listen to the Temptations of Potiphar's Wife, has rendered him an eminent Example of Virtue and Piety.

EVENTS.—Joseph sold to the Ishmaelites, Gen. xxxviii. 26.—cast into Prison, G. xxxix. 19.—explains the Dream of Pharaoh, G. xl. 5.—exalted by Pharaoh, G. xli. 38.—The Seven Years Fertility, predicted by Joseph, began, G. xli. 38.—The Seven Years Sterility began, G. xli. 54.—The Messiah promised, G. xlix. 10.—Jacob died, aged 147 Years, G. xlix. 33.—Joseph died, G. l. 26.

Lived about B.C. 1520. Lived about B.C. 1520.

JOB,

The celebrated Patriarch and Example of Patience is supposed, by many, to have been cotemporary with Moses. His History of Troubles, which he bore with the greatest Piety, Resignation, and Fortitude, evinces what Man is capable of enduring when he resigns himself to the Will of Heaven, while he depends on it for his last Resource and Protection.

EVENTS.—Job distinguished for his Piety and Resignation, Job i. 1.—estimated his Substance, in which he surpassed all the Men of the East, J. i. 3.—prophecied respecting the Messiah, J. xix. 25 and 26.—dwelt as King in the Army, and comforted the Mourners, J. xxix. 6 to 8, and 25.—chastised the wicked, and was a Father to the Poor, J. xxix. 12. 17.—persecuted by his Wife, Children, and all his Friends, J. xxx. 17, 18, 29, 30.

Born C. B. 1571. Died B.C. 1451.

MOSES,

Was the most celebrated Jewish Legislator, sacred Historian, and Leader of the Jews, over the Red Sea, and through the Wilderness, until they arrived in Sight of Canaan. Thus he proved himself to be, as he asserted, to have been appointed by God to deliver the Jews from their Egyptian Bondage. He wrote the Pentateuch, the Book of Job, and the 11 Psalms, from 90 to 100.

EVENTS.—Moses born, Exodus i. 22.—flew the Egyptians, and fled to Midian, where he remained 40 Years, E. ii. 11.—called by God, E. iii. 2.—afflicted Egypt with the 10 Plagues, E. from iii. to xii.—delivered the Law on Mount Sinai, E. xii. 13.—Tabernacle began, E. xxvi.—Moses died, aged 120, Deuteronomy xxxiv. 5.—Coming of Christ foretold by Moses, Deut. xviii. 15 and 18.

Born B.C. 1155. Died B.C. 1117.

SAMSON,

Was memorable for his supernatural Strength, his Victories over the Philistines, and his own Destruction in pulling down a Temple, in which the Philistines were assembled. Being a Judge, and Chief Magistrate of the People, he was justified in hazarding his own Life for the Destruction of the public Enemy.

EVENTS.—Jephthah's rash vow, Judges xi. 29.—Samson born, J. xiii. 24.—endowed with wonderful Strength—fell in Love with Delilah, a Harlot—betrayed by Delilah into the Hands of the Philistines, who imprisoned him, cut off his Hair, and blind him—Samson revenged himself by pulling down the Temple in which the Philistines were assembled to make sport of him, J. xiii. to xvi.

Born B.C. 1155. Died B.C. 1057.

SAMUEL,

Was a Prophet and sacred Historian. He anointed Saul, first King of the Jews. He succeeded Eli as Judge of Israel. He is thought to have written the Books of Judges, Ruth, and the first Book of Samuel. Samuel departed from Life in the 98th Year of his Age.

EVENTS.—Samuel governed the People, Sam. v. and vi.—conquered the Philistines, S. vii. 13.—Israelites desired a King—S. viii. 1.—Samuel took his two Sons to assist him in the Government, S. viii. 1. &c.—Samuel anointed Saul as King of the Hebrews, S. ix. 1. &c.—Samuel drew the Subjects of Saul to him by the sacred Rites of Religion, S. x. xi. and 12.

Died B.C. 1055. Died B.C. 1055.

SAUL,

Was the first King of Israel. Disobeying the Commands of God, he was rejected by him, and David, the Son of Jesse, was anointed and empowered to govern in his Stead. This was the Cause of David being so greatly persecuted by Saul. He and his Sons were, however, slain fighting valiantly against the Philistines on Mount Gilboa.

EVENTS.—Saul conquered the Ammonites, I Sam. xi. &c.—anointed David in Hebron, I S. xvi. 11.—afflicted by an evil Spirit, I S. xvi. 15.—David slew Goliath, I S. xvii. 38.—Saul persecuted David, I S. xviii. to xxi.—David fled to Samuel, and suffered great Affliction, I S. xxxi. 1.—Saul killed, S. xxxi. 1.

Born B.C. 1085. Anointed King B.C. 1057.

DAVID,

King of Israel, was the most sacred and divine Poet among the Hebrews. He possessed many Virtues, which he degraded by his illicit Amours. He established the Worship of God in the Temple which Solomon was to build. For his Crimes, 70,000 of his Subjects were smitten by a Pestilence.

EVENTS.—David retook the Ark of the Lord, 2 Sam. vi. 12.—Nathan promised the Messiah, 2 S. vii. 12.—Nathan's ingenious Parable, 2 S. xii.—The Resurrection of our Saviour foretold by David, Psalm xvi. and xix.—David spoke of Jesus coming to preach the Word of God, and the Doctrines of Righteousness for the Salvation of Man, Pf. xl. 6, 7, 8, &c.—David's Prophecy on our Saviour's Sufferings, and Words on the Cross, Pf. xxii. 16. 18.

Died A. M. 3046. Died B.C. 958.

REHOBAM,

King of Judah, by exercising a Tyranny over his Subjects, Ten of the Twelve Tribes revolted, and left his Government under his Brother, their Leader Jeroboam. He was Son and Successor of Solomon. Having reigned 17 Years, he died, leaving his Son Abijah to enjoy his Throne.

EVENTS.—Rehoboam reigned over Judah, I Kings xii. 1.—lost 10 Tribes, who revolted, I K. xii. 16.—succeeded by Abijah, I K. xv. 1.—Abijah warned against Jeroboam, I K. xv. 1.—Aha reigned over Judah, I K. xv. 9.—died, I K. xv. 24.—Athaliah destroyed the Royal Offspring, 2 K. xi. 1.

Died A. M. 3045. Died B.C. 959.

JEROBOAM,

Was the Leader of the Ten revolting Tribes. He is described in Scripture as the idolatrous King of Israel. From political Motives, he began the Worship of the Golden Calf, which has caused his Name to have been mentioned in Scripture with such Detestation.

EVENTS.—Jeroboam reigned over Israel, I Kings xiii. 14.—Elijah translated to Heaven, 2 K. ii. 9.—Elisha the Prophet received the Mantle of Elijah, 2 K. ii. 1.—Jehu anointed King, 2 K. ix. 1.—Jehoiadab began his impious Reign, 2 K. xiii. 1.—Isaiah prophesied the coming of Christ, xxv. 7; xliii. 2; and xlix. 16.

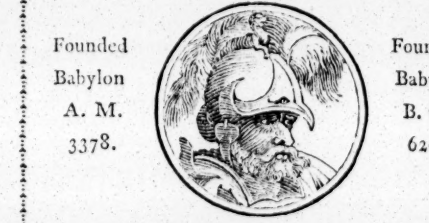

Died B.C. 695. Died B.C. 695.

ISAIAH,

Was a Prophet, who, from having foretold the greatest Number and Variety of Events respecting the Messiah, is called the Evangelical, or Gospel Prophet. He lived in the Time of Hezekiah, who put him to Death.

EVENTS.—Micah foretold the Place of Christ's Birth, Micah v. 2.—Isaiah foretold Christ would be born of a Virgin, Isaiah vii. 14.—that Christ would be of the House of Jesse or David, If. xi. 10.—that Christ would be rejected by the Jews, and received by the Gentiles, If. viii. 14.—foretold the Perfections of Christ, If. xi. 1 and 2.—the Nature of Christ's Doctrine, If. xi. 4.—the Miracles of Christ, If. xxxv. 4.—the Forerunner of Christ, If. xl. 3.

Founded Babylon A. M. 3378. Founded Babylon B.C. 626.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR,

Second King of Assyria. He was the famous Conqueror who took Jerusalem, and led the Inhabitants captive to Babylon. He founded the Babylonish Empire, A. M. 3378. B.C. 626. This Monarch had two remarkable Dreams, which being too long to insert in the short Limits prescribed to these brief Characters, we have only to observe they may be found in the 2d and 4th Chapters of Daniel.

EVENTS.—Messiah foretold, Jerem. ii. 35 and 36; xxxiii. 14 and 15.—Nebuchadnezzar took Jerusalem, Jerem. xxxix. 1.—Jehoiachin taken to Babylon, 2 Chron. xxxvi. 9.—Nebuchadnezzar appointed Zedekiah King of Jerusalem, 2 C. xxxvi. 14.—Jerusalem entirely destroyed, 2 C. xxxvi. 14.—Jews taken captive to Babylon, Jerem. xxxix. 9.—Messiah foretold, Ezek. xxxiv. 23 and 24; xxxvii. 21.

Slain A. M. 3869. Slain B.C. 135.

SIMON,

Was surnamed the Just. He was a famous High Priest of the Jews, and succeeded his Brother Jonathan as their Leader. He was esteemed for his Wisdom in Council, and his Courage in War. Ptolomy, Son of Antiochus, treacherously caused him and his two Sons to be slain in the Castle of Docho.

EVENTS.—Simon succeeded his Brother Jonathan, as Commander of the Jewish Forces, and immediately attacked and took the Fortresses of Acra, I M. xiii.—defeated Cendebeus, who commanded the Army of Antiochus, I M. xv.—Demetrius recovered again his Kingdom of Syria; but was again deposed, and murdered.

Died A. M. 3898. Died B.C. 106.

HYRCANUS,

A High Priest and Leader of the Jews, renewed the League made by his Father Simon with the Romans, whose Friendship he confirmed by a considerable Present. He made Peace with Antiochus Sidetes, conquered the Samaritans, and governed the Jews 29 Years.

EVENTS.—Hyrcanus renewed the League with the Romans, Jewish Antiquities—presented the Romans with a Gold Cup and Shield of immense Value, Ancient History—renounced the Pharisees and their Doctrine, Jewish Ant. B. xiii. c. 8.—died, and left his Priesthood to his eldest Son, Aristobulus, Josephus, B. i. c. 3.

Died A. M. 3899. Died B.C. 105.

ARISTOBULUS,

Was the first who assumed the Title of King of the Jews after their Return from their Captivity in Babylon. He was a brave General, who conquered to extend the Influence of the Jewish Religion; but his Virtues were somewhat degraded by the severe Treatment of his Brothers.

EVENTS.—Aristobulus subdued the Ituraeans, and obliged them to adopt the Jewish Faith—conquered his Brothers, Alexander and Abolom, Josephus, B. i. c. 3.—being dead, Salome his wife, released his brothers, Jof. B. i. c. 3.—Alexander crucified 800 Prisoners in one Day, Jof. B. i. c. 3.

Died A. M. 3935. Died B.C. 69.

ALEXANDRA,

Wife of Aristobulus, succeeded her Husband in the Government of the Jews. In her Reign, the Jews were greatly persecuted by the Pharisees, and threatened with an Invasion by Tigranes. Before she died, she deputed Hyrcanus her Successor in the Throne of Judea.

EVENTS.—Alexandra, Wife of Aristobulus, ascended the Throne of Judea, Josephus B. i. c. 4.—Tigranes prevented from invading Jerusalem, by the Romans having entered his Dominions, and laid the Inhabitants under Contribution—Alexandra died about 69 Years before Jesus Christ was born.